

Zui est-il ?

Mico Mrkaic

Senior Economist

IMF International Monetary Fund

Mico Mrkaic is a senior economist in the IMF's Research Department. Before joining the Research department, he worked as a desk economist in the European Department, covering The Netherlands, UK, and Switzerland and in Western Hemisphere Department as a desk for the Eastern Caribbean Currency Union.

His current research focuses on the applied econometrics, estimation of potential GDP during financial cycles, and the productivity of small and medium enterprises. Mr. Mrkaic received his doctorate in economics and his Master's degrees in physics and economics from Carnegie Mellon University.

Le Club

Les « Matinales » du Club du CEPII sont des rendez-vous où experts, économistes et dirigeants des secteurs publics et privés échangent sur des sujets de l'actualité économique internationale.